The marriage of Miss Marion Gallaudet and Mr. John Warren Edgerton of New Haven, Conn., will take place at the Gal-laudet home, at Kendall Green, next month, and will be very quiet, as both contracting families are in mourning.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh are not likely to be in Washington more than a few days this fall or winter, as they have not yet changed their plan of going to California for a lengthy stay. Miss Evelyn Walsh is improving satisfactorily, and the date of their departure from Garden City depends entirely on her health.

The Russian ambassador, Baron Rosen, with the Baroness Rosen, and their young daughter, the Baroness Elizabeth Rosen, is at the New Willard, pending the selection of an embassy residence. Baroness Rosen and her daughter spent last week at 'Friendship' with Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean, where they enjoyed all the pleasure of suburban life, as well as the advan tages of close proximity to the city which will be their home for some time to come. It is hard to find any spot at Friendship which does not present a suitable background for the making of a good picture, and one of the amusements of their hostess

NO MORE GROWLERS.

Excise Board Likely to Make New Rule.

Announcement of the fact in The Star a few days ago that the excise board had under contemplation the passage of an anti-growler resolution which will be the basis of the issue, or non-issue, of many liquor licenses at the beginning of the new fiscal year on November 1, has precipitated a strenuous controversy.

Brewers and saloon keepers-much of whose income depends upon the money se-cur d from the retail of beer as symbolized by the all-prevalent bucket and pitcher trade—have called upon Chairman Darnellie of the excise board almost daily to voice their protests against the requirement, to be held over the heads of the wholesaler and retailer alike at the opening of the new license year, that heer and spirits he sold license year, that beer and spirits be sold hereafter only in original packages, or else over the bar in the usual glass.

Despite these protests, however, the board is a unit in declaring their belief that such an agreement, wrung from liquor dealers throughout the city, and particularly in the poorer sections, will inevitably work for
